Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Layne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything.

"I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down.

"I was very nervous, . . . I would have a tired, dull headache.

"I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second . . . I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui.

"I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine." Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Pulaski.—Democrats and Republicans of Scott county have entered into an agreement pledging themselves not to pay the poll tax of any one in an illegal manner. The agreement is signed by E. M. Craft, chairman of the Democratic party of Scott county, and J. P. Dougherty, chairman of the Republican party, as well as by numerous influential voters in both parties.

Winchester.—Nothing having been done to repair the extensive damage done by a freshet a year ago to the historic Chesapeake and Ohio canal, reports continue to gain credence that it probably will be abandoned as a waterway. Suggestions have been made that all water be drawn off and the canal be converted into a scenic automobile highway between Washington and Cumberland, Md.

Charlottesville.—Another killing in the mountain section, near Boonsville, eighteen miles west of the city, occurred, in which two families prominent in that locality, are involved, and as a result Wesley Sullivan and his son, Golden, were lodged in jail by Sheriff J. Mason Smith and his deputies, under a warrant charging them with the murder of Harry Shiflett.

Lexington.—At the regular business meeting of the Biology Society of Washington and Lee University, Paul B. Danville.—Police Officer P. L. Swanigin, of the Schoolfield force, had a narrow escape in a desperate encounter with Harry Yeatts, who succeeded in firing a revolver at him, the bullet making a skin wound just over the heart. The encounter took place near the Stokesland golf links, and several players ran to the rescue of the officer after the fight had proceeded some time.

Bedford.—The Agricultural Advisory Council of Bedford county, whose men in the office of E. C. Turner, county agent, to discuss plans for the extension work in the county for the year, heard Gordon Elcans, of Blacksburg, make a talk on the duties and responsibilities of the Council. Committees on agronomy, horticulture, club work, livestock, rural education and publicity, co-operative marketing, poultry, and fair work were appointed.

South Boston.—J. W. Grasat, general manager of the Retail Merchants' Institute of Chicago, addressed a meeting of the newly organized Chamber of Commerce. The meeting was thrown open to the public and the attendance was large. He also addressed a meeting and dinner of the Kiwanis Club at 6.10 P. M. at the C. H. Friend High School. The speaker's address was based upon commerce and development of a community.

Danville.—Tragedy is still stalking in the ruins of the State Bank of Virginia, which failed for nearly a quarter of a million dollars, for which failure Thomas G. Pool is serving fifteen years in the State penitentiary. The death is reported from Virginia of William Wilborne. He was one of the depositors whose life savings were swept away in the crash. Latterly his mind had become impaired, friends say, from worry and for ten days he had declined to eat and drink. His death is ascribed literally to self-imposed starvation.

Abingdon.—Judge Henry Clay McDowell, in the Federal Court here, granted the motion for continuance of the $50,000 damage suit of Rose Clear against the Mathieson Alkali Works on account of the absence of two material witnesses for the defense and the fact that the corporation had not been able to procure an engineer. The case will come up at the November term of court. It is regarded as a test suit by attorneys as to the liability for death and damage as a result of the dam disaster Christmas Eve.

Lynchburg.—The Karuna Court, Order of the Orient, a Junior Order of American Mechanics, will be instituted here Wednesday night, with about 400 charter members. Junior councils in towns near Lynchburg are to be identified with it, many of the charter members being juniors from points out of Lynchburg.

Bristol.—Through the medium of the news, stating South-western Virginia, the Virginia-Tennessee section of the State has launched a campaign to exploit the great natural resources of nineteen counties in the mountain region of the State. The Southwestern Virginia, Incorporated, is the agency through which the various counties will concentrate their energies in promoting the advantages of Southwestern Virginia.

Amherst.—The Amherst county authorities have been notified by the State Highway Commission in Richmond that the commission has taken over for the purpose of improving and maintaining six miles of road leading from Amherst toward Riverville, and 4 3-10 miles leading from Amherst toward Sandidges. Last year the commission took over five miles in the direction of Riverville and three miles in the direction of Sandidges.

Steck, from Mrs. F. W. Deighyer, executrix of the estate of the late Mrs. Eunice Lupton, widow of S. L. Lupton, whose will provided for establishing a branch in horticulture as a memorial to her husband. Mr. Lupton was one of the foremost apple growers of Virginia.

Staunton.—With an oversubscription of $10,000, a citizens' committee here closed a campaign for $100,000 to go toward establishing a birthplace memorial to Woodrow Wilson here. In announcing the result of the campaign, William A. Pratt, chairman of the committee, said a national appeal for funds for the shrine soon will be made by a commission of distinguished Americans headed by President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia.

The resolution asks that April 28 be fixed as the date for the election. It is set forth in the petition of the council that the bonds are to run twenty-five years; to be issued in denominations of $1,000 and numbered from 81 to 850 inclusive; that two bonds are to be paid each year, the first becoming due January 1, 1926, and shall bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent. Harris, Miss Virginia Vervoss, Miss Alice Ferguson, Miss Hettie Moore and Mrs. Thomas Jones. Blackburn Smith, member of the American Bar Association's pilgrimage to Great Britain last summer, entertained the club with an account of impressions gained over there.

Bristol.—Judge Joseph L. Kelly, of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was fatally wounded at his home here by a shotgun—the same weapon that caused the death less than three months ago of his successor as president of the court and his predecessor on the bench of the State's highest tribunal—Judge Frederick W. Keith. Judge Kelly, relatives said he told them during a conscious moment before his death, was accidentally wounded. Judge Kelly was shot shortly before 9 o'clock A. M. Members of his family said he and his son started to the basement of the home after a rat. Lesson for April 26

STEPHEN, THE FIRST MARTYR

LESSON TEXT—Acts 6:1-7, 46.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."—Rev. 2:10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Brave Man.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Stephen the First Martyr.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Stephen a Layman Preaches.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Character and Message of Stephen.

I. Stephen the Deacon (6:1-8).

The early church was threatened with disruption over suspected partiality in the distribution of alms. This was met at once as the church took relief from external troubles. Difficulties arose from within. A congregational meeting was called, and the case was placed before the church which was instructed to select seven Spirit-filled men of good reputation to administer the temporalities of the church, thus giving the apostles the necessary time for prayer and the ministry of God's word.

1. Stephen Before the Council (6:9-15).

The success of this movement soon came to be noted by the enemies of Christ.

1. Disputing With Stephen (vv. 9-10).

Certain foreign-speaking Jews took the lead in this controversy. Perhaps the fact that Stephen was a Greek Jew provoked them to act. He was more than a match for them while the debate was carried along the lines of reason and Scripture. Beaten along these lines they had him arrested and brought before the council.

2. Charged With Blasphemy (vv. 11-14).

They trumped up this charge and endeavored to support it by secretly finding and inducing men to perjure themselves in their testimony. Stephen showed in his preaching that God's purpose is progressive, and that the policy instituted by Moses should be superseded by the new faith since it was the culmination of what Moses began. He showed that the old dispensation would be superseded by the new; and that the church would come out into the liberty of Christ. Christianity did not destroy Judaism but caused it to blossom forth into the glory of the new order.

3. Stephen's Face Transfigured (v. 15).

He was so completely filled with Christ that as he saw the angry mob [illegible] and condemnation, and he violently dealt with and pass into the presence of the Lord, his face shone as the face of an angel. It was the glory of Christ shining through him (cf. Stephen's Defense (7:1-53).

In refuting their charge he showed by the history of God's dealing with the Jews that they had always resisted Him. Therefore their attitude was but one of their unwillingness to move forward with the divine purpose. As pointed to by Stephen four points stand out in his defense:

1. God's dealings with the Jews showed progress. The end was not reached by a single leap, but by gradual stages.

2. The temple was not the only holy place. God appeared at different places and at different times.

3. Israel invariably opposed God as He tried to lead them on.

4. He showed his loyalty to Moses by [illegible] referring to him.

IV. Stephen Stoned (7:54-60).

His words were too much for them so they gnashed upon him with their teeth.

1. He Looked Steadfastly Into Heaven (v. 55).

Instead of looking about upon his murderers in their raging fury, he looked up to heaven. This was the center of his calm. If he had looked about him, he might have been afraid.

2. He Saw the Glory of God (v. 55).

A vision of God's glory can only be seen by those who are loyal to Him even unto death.

3. He Saw Jesus Standing on the Right Hand of God (vv. 55-56).

The fact that Jesus was standing shows that He was actually interested in the suffering of His faithful witness.

4. They Cast Him Out of the City and Stoned Him (vv. 58-59).

5. His Prayer (v. 60).

He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge." How like the prayer of Jesus on the cross! Christ so completely filled him that he could think [illegible].

6. He Fell Asleep (v. 60).

The Christian's death is only a sleep. This sublime scene must have vitally affected Saul, who was consenting [illegible] to his death.

Worth Remembering

Over and over again we need to comfort and strengthen ourselves with the remembrance that there is a very wonderful, enduring quality to the gold that we bind clean and sound and honest.

Prayer for the Day

Let each new day bring to our lips the prayer: "Make me calm, and quiet, and strong for all the day holds of [illegible] and contradiction, of toil and trouble."

HIXBURG

Mrs. J. H. McCue and the leaders of the 1925 program for W. M. S., of the Appomattox association will meet with Fisher Memorial church, Saturday, May 2nd, and every Baptist should feel interested and see that their subscription to the 1925 program is paid as soon as possible as the books will soon close for this year.

Our farmers are busy this week hauling fertilizer and planting corn.

The play given by our school teachers on last Saturday night with the aid of some local help was called by all a grand success and I may say that a unanimous vote petitioned Misses Vaughan and Moss to return to us the coming session.

L. J. Harker a Union Soldier, who for a number of years resided here, died of paralysis in the 84th year of his age, April 10th, and was buried in Hixburg church yard on the 11th, in the presence of a large number of friends. Burial services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Redding of Presbyterian church assisted by Rev. Duling of Baptist church. Mr. Harker was a never-failing neighbor and enjoyed the highest confidence of his fellow man. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

U. S. Senators have a devotion for one another that the dear people cannot exactly understand when one comes from far away Alabama to V. M. I. to speak in behalf of the candidacy for Governorship but one thing your correspondent can say for senator T. M. Heffner. He is a most congenial and fine looking man and unusually large (and spoke in the highest terms of Virginians), yet he said to me that he was smaller than his other five brothers. Now like the Hebrew spies I must say that all Alabamites are giants, and the voters of the Old Dominion should be grateful to Alabama in giving advice, at the same time there are some voters here that realize they are being mothered by the same sacred soil that imaginated Thomas Jefferson, George Washington and candidates G. Walter Mapp, J. Horace White and such other men that think the people should have a voice and vote in the election of County, State and Federal officers.

What next? Two more young men of this place have purchased new cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Yank Cawthorn spent last Sunday in the home of Mrs. Ella Swan.

DREADFUL PAINS

This Lady Suffered Severely, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Mrs. George S. Hunter, of Columbus, Ga., writes:

"I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during . . . My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay some times two weeks at a time, could not work and I just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had a long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good tonic it was for women, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve.

"My sides hurt less and I began to improve in health. . . . The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now.

"I have gained 17 pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all.

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui."
